Supporter Spotlight!

Francesca Vera is giving her wealth, wisdom, and work to so many great organizations and causes and we at the Children's Museum of Stockton are proud to count our museum among them. She is a financial donor, including tribute gifts in memory of those who have passed away, a Power of Play Tour Ambassador, bringing others to tour the museum, and a Table Host for our recent Every Day is Child's Play Ask Event Luncheon. Her support is invaluable to the museum. Francesca is a champion for our children, our exhibits, and our mission. Thank you, Francesca, for recognizing what the power of play can do for our children!

SPEND THE DAY AT THE MUSEUM!

The museum is a great place to spend the day. Guests of the museum have same-day in-and-out privileges (with valid receipt), can bring snacks to eat in our outdoor patio, and take a photo with our larger-than-life toy soldiers: Tillie, Bennie, and Sunny!

HAVING A BIRTHDAY?

A MESSAGE FROM EDWARD

In May, we held our 1st annual Every Day is Child's Play Ask Event Luncheon. We utilize a fundraising model which focuses on our mission and asked our Power of Play tour ambassadors and strongest supporters to become our Table Hosts for the event. Their job? Fill their table with individuals who (ideally) have attended one of our tours, so they knew why the museum is so important to the community and our children. They also let their guests know that while it was a free event, they would be asked to become a supporter. Held at the Waterloo Gun and Bocce Club, our event guests were treated to a delicious lunch, a fun video featuring guests of the museum, an inspiring speech by Tanisha Garcia, a mom and museum supporter, as well as pair of fun glasses to make them smile, laugh, and be a child again. Many joined our Toy Soldier Brigade, and we are honored by the financial support of our community.

Edward
